

Review for Big Yellow Blues

*"Vermonters Make Great Children's Music: Gary Dulabaum has been writing children's music since he was 13. He has recorded 3 tapes, with two more in the works, all original music. Music From Mother's Knee, Big Yellow Blues and Be Proud of Who You Are! mix a variety of styles, such as rock, jazz and country. Some of the songs relate to kids' personal experience, from getting a good seat on a bus to coping with a new baby in the family, while others are silly – a song about sneakers dancing at the "sneaker's ball" and a cat who goes to school. A former preschool teacher, Dulabaum is now a full-time performer and recording artist who tours extensively in Vermont and around the country, singing for toddlers, preschoolers and elementary school aged kids." Susan Youngwood, Vermont Parent & Child Magazine, Burlington, Vermont
